

Teachers and all Education Support Staff!

Get all the deductions and credits you deserve!

Only Jackson Hewitt® has Deductions@Work® — letting us zero in on the deductions and credits specific to people working in the education field.

Whether you're a teacher or part of an education support staff, we'll make sure you get credit for every expense you're entitled to, including:

- An above-the-line deduction of up to $250 of qualified expenses you paid during the tax year
- Out-of-pocket cost for supplies that exceed the $250 limit if you itemize your deductions
- Subscriptions to professional publications or magazines
- Professional or union dues
- Fees paid to renew your teaching certificate
- Expenses incurred when lecturing, writing, or publishing for which you receive no additional compensation other than your regular salary

NOTE: These expenses may be for research, incidental travel, and publication costs.

They must be ordinary and necessary expenses for activities related to and expected for your position.

- Clothing required for work that is not appropriate for everyday wear, such as an art teacher's smock or a dance teacher's jazz shoes
- Allowable car expenses incurred when taking students on a field trip
- Cost of materials used for a class play or a class party
